

The More You Know THE MEMORY GAME YFA Edition

	YFA sent weekly newsletters about topics affecting negotiations	Faculty expressed frustration over impasse delay	YCCD sent its narrative about negotiations to everyone
YFA responded to every false claim in the YCCD narrative	YFA held General Faculty Meetings with great attendance		Some faculty claim they are unaware of why a strike vote is happening
Fall 2016 survey results had many faculty demanding to strike then	YFA sent a spreadsheet summarizing every detail of negotiations	Strike authorization vote sent after exhausting all other options
Detailed emails were sent after every negotiation meeting		YFA's legal counsel spoke directly to faculty at the start of the semester	YFA continued its promise to negotiate to avoid impasse

Stay informed. Stay engaged. Stay united.